

Disability Integration Advisor Lead

FEMA is seeking talented men and women who are eager to assist disaster survivors in the role of Disability Integration Advisor Lead, as a FEMA Reservist, in the Disability Integration (DI) unit. Reservists are vital employees, to FEMA's disaster workforce, who work on an on-call basis to support disaster survivors when they are most in need.

Disability Integration Advisor Lead serves as the lead expert level advisor to the Command Staff and program areas providing expert level advice, guidance and technical assistance on programmatic, physical and effective communication access for people with disability and others with access and functional need for all Presidentially Major Disaster and Emergency Declarations. The salary for this position is $40.77 per hour.

As a Disability Integration Advisor Lead in FEMA's Reservist Program, primary position duties include:

- Leading all Disability Integration staff and managing activities at a Joint Field Office.
- Advising, developing, and delivering technical training to guide, facilitate and achieve equal access throughout all disaster programs and services.
- Establishing and maintaining tone and tenor of Disability Integration across all aspects of response, recovery and mitigation while providing strategic analyses addressing disaster staffing, efficiency and capabilities to support disaster operations.
- Engaging existing coalitions as partners and building coalitions internally and with other Federal agencies, State and local tribal territorial governments, nonprofit and private sector organizations, and disability advocacy leaders to achieve inclusive emergency management.
- Establishing and managing organizational and information resources strategically to achieve measurable outcomes which prioritize the needs of disaster survivors.
- Meeting organizational goals and customer expectations and making decisions that produce high-quality results by applying technical knowledge, analyzing problems, and calculating risks.

In the role of Disability Integration Advisor Lead, in the Reservist program, you will receive training, have the opportunity to travel and receive health benefits (when activated to support disaster operations), and build your professional network.
