

Disability Integration Advisor

FEMA is seeking talented men and women who are eager to assist disaster survivors in the role of Disability Integration Advisor, as a FEMA Reservist, in the Disability Integration (DI) unit. Reservists are vital employees, to FEMA's disaster workforce, who work on an on-call basis to support disaster survivors when they are most in need.

Disability Integration Advisor is responsible for providing subject matter expertise, guidance and resources to all FEMA programs and services during response and recovery for disasters to ensure programs and services are integrated and fully accessible to survivors with disabilities and other individuals with access and functional needs. The salary for this position is $40.77 per hour.

As a Disability Integration Advisor in FEMA's Reservist Program, primary position duties include:

- Participating as part of a team in facility site evaluation for Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs) within 48 hours of a validated State's request.
- Working collaboratively and providing guidance to External Affairs, Disaster Survivor Assistance, Individual Assistance, Recovery and other program areas that interface with the community.
- Providing guidance for State and local governmental agencies to assist with ensuring people with disabilities and/or other access and functional needs have equal access to programs and services.
- Providing Support Services Branch or designee guidance and technical assistance to establish accessibility at Disaster Recovery Center and other field locations pursuant to establish Agency policy guidance.

In the role of Disability Integration Advisor, in the Reservist program, you will receive training, have the opportunity to travel and receive health benefits (when activated to support disaster operations), and build your professional network.
